Keep up what your doing because your a great teacher. I really enjoyed having you as a teacher and you made me so much better at writing and reading. Thank you so much and good to you next year your a great teacher and I wish I had you again

Keep interacting with the students like you do, with the weird voices and being funny.

Keep doing great!

ur pretty cool fam. But people are not scared of you. I feel like I can get away with anything and you are not going to get mad. You feel like a kid not a teacher which works, but people get off task. Thanks for playing smash with me tho

Try putting music into it. Maybe make songs that use all the vocab words? (That's my best idea this year Mr.Kim XD)

I think that you have done a great job being our Freshman teacher. You have helped us all improve and made me feel very welcomed to the high school. I am thankful that you have been my teacher and I hope that you excel in your english teaching career. Have a nice summer.

Favorite teacher.

Nothing, great year!

You're a good teacher and for the most part make class very fun and intriguing. You offer good games and breaks which is nice as a student when I've been sitting all day being bored. This fun game sometimes makes focusing easier.

It was a great year Mr. Kim

I really liked playing the games, and I liked when we given lots of time to write essays.

I had an amazing time in your class this year! I have learned so much and feel more confident about my writing! Thanks for making my freshmen year welcoming and fun!

Play better music in class.

You are a great teacher and I can tell you have a strong passion for English. Thank you!

I never really liked English before this year, but I really enjoyed this class and looked forward to it.

Have at least have one or more classes for each unit that is all class discussion.

Thank you

I really like your teaching style. I like how you can relate things to modern day and sometimes explain things in a way were they that teenagers can relate to. I also felt very comfortable in your class and if i voiced my opinions i would not be judged for them. I am going to miss having you as a teacher.

I like how at the beginning of the class you have the "where we were/where we are/where we are going" but I think you should put the projections on to Google Classroom because most times there were good notes we could have used for homework, essays, etc. Also, I think letting us choose our groups every once in a while would be good because I know that I would feel more comfortable with my friends and wouldn't be afraid to say what I was thinking.

You've been an awesome teacher

Im glad that I had you as a teacher. You helped me a lot with understanding each unit as the year went by. Its incredible how it went by so fast. Though you say you may not be the best teacher or the best of your ability ... you were my favorite teacher and i thought you did a awesome job.

I just want to remark on the productive and fun time I have had in English class this year and thank you for making things fun, being really nice to all of the students, and letting people have their own thoughts and opinions on things!!

I really enjoyed this year with you as my teacher, even if the content wasn't always as challenging as it would be if I chose to take a higher level class. Nevertheless, I learned a lot from you this year and I see that you definitely put in effort to ensure that I got the most out of this class as possible. Thanks boiii!

Good luck with your journey and I will miss you. I hope to stay in contact

I think this class, went into detail a lot, and sometimes it was good, but other times I think things got a little boring, and sometimes there was just too much talking

Thank you so much Mr. Kim enjoy your new endeavor

You really show you care about people. A lot of people don't see that. Bye and I'll truly miss you. Emm

nothing

It is clear that you try very hard to be your best and you are destined to be great at whatever you want to do. Good luck with everything you do in the future!

I personally wish that you would have gone into your personal opinion more this year. I get trying to be neutral but even biased learning that goes deeper in my opinion is better than neutral learning that only scratches the surface of an issue.

Favorite teacher, will be greatly missed!

Mr. Kim is an awesome teacher, and always has a positive attitude. Even if something bad has happened to someone, he can always find
